

WELCOME TO THE SUSTAINABILITY MINOR:

Thank you for your interest in enrolling in the Sustainability Studies Minor. To start your journey, fill this form out to plan when you're going to take the courses listed. You will need to plan around the courses required to complete your Major. Look at the S-minor page to see when the courses will be offered and schedule them to your best ability. Make sure you run this by an Academic Adviser or your Major Advisor to make sure you're not taking a big workload or missing some courses.

Instructions:

1. Use this worksheet to pencil out a plan and prepare for the upcoming quarters.
2. Check with the RCC staff to learn the Provost's office hours or schedule an appointment with either the provost (sacarter@ucsc.edu) or The Academic Coordinator Tamara Ball (tball@ucsc.edu)
3. Print and bring the completed form to the appointment.
4. Once signed, you will leave the form at the RCC front desk with Barbara Rollins (bshelley@ucsc.edu)

COURSE PLANNER for ENROLLMENT in S-MINOR

Students must declare a major before declaring the Minor in Sustainability Studies at Rachel Carson College. Students wishing to declare the Minor in Sustainability Studies should make an advising appointment with Rachel Carson College Provost, Sue Carter sacarter@ucsc.edu (preferred) or alternatively, Academic Coordinator, Tamara Ball tball@ucsc.edu. Copies of the course planner (below) and copies of your academic planning form and major declaration need to be obtained/ prepared prior to this meeting. Keep in mind that you will need to schedule courses for the minor around your major and GE courses, especially since scheduling is done on a year-by-year basis.
